

BERTHA PITTS CAMPBELL EQUITY AWARDS 2021

PRESENTED BY YWCA SEATTLE | KING | SNOHOMISH

NOMINATE A CHAMPION FOR EQUITY!

YWCA is celebrating people who work every day to champion gender equity and racial justice through the Bertha Pitts Campbell Equity Awards, which will honor some of the individuals and companies taking action to eliminate racism and empower women in our community.

We're seeking nominations in three categories:

- Community Champion: individual with 10+ years of experience advancing equity through their work, advocacy, or community service.
- Rising Champion: individual between the ages of 18 – 30 who is advancing equity through their work, advocacy, or community service.
- Business Champion: for-profit company of any size advancing equity in their workplace or through community service.

Nominees must be located in King County or Snohomish County and should meet at least two of the following criteria:

- Advocates and promotes the values of racial and gender equity in their community or workplace
- Leads and supports programs that advance racial and gender equity in their community or workplace
- Creates opportunities for BIPOC women to fully participate and lead in their community or workplace

Employees and board members of YWCA Seattle | King | Snohomish are not eligible for these awards.
