

2022 BPC EQUITY AWARDS

NOMINATE A CHAMPION FOR EQUITY

YWCA is celebrating people who work every day to champion gender equity and racial justice through the Bertha Pitts Campbell Equity Awards, which will honor some of the individuals and companies taking action to eliminate racism and empower women in our community.

We're seeking nominations for the following categories:

- Community Champion: individual with 10+ years of experience advancing equity through their work, advocacy, or community service.
- Rising Champion: individual between the ages of 18 – 30 who is advancing equity through their work, advocacy, or community service.
- Small Business Champion: for-profit company with less than 50 employees advancing equity in their workplace and community.
- Large Business Champion: for-profit company with more than 50 employees, advancing equity in their workplace and community.

Nominees must be located in King County or Snohomish County and meet at least two of the following criteria:

- Advocates and promotes the values of racial and gender equity in their community or workplace
- Leads and supports programs that advance racial and gender equity in their community or workplace
- Creates opportunities for BIPOC women to fully participate and lead in their community or workplace

PAST HONOREES (2021)

Community Champion: Debbie Bird (Board Chair, Northwest African American Museum)

Rising Champion: Kavya Varkey (Co-Founder, Int'l. Peer Education on Climate Change)

Business Champion: Seattle Storm (Founders of social justice platform, Force4Change)

Employees and board members of YWCA Seattle | King | Snohomish are not eligible.

YWCAWORKS.ORG/BPC

2022 BPC EQUITY AWARDS

NOMINATION FORM

To submit your nomination online, please visit our website. Nominators may also complete the PDF form and email to communications@ywcaworks.org by end of day on April 4, 2022.

Statements from this form may be edited for use in publicity materials for selected honorees.

AWARD CATEGORY (SELECT ONE)

Community Champion: Person with 10 or more years of experience

Rising Champion: Person between the ages of 18 – 30

Small Business Champion: For-profit company, less than 50 employees

Large Business Champion: For-profit company, more than 50 employees

NOMINEE DETAILS

Name:

Company Name:

Contact Info:

NOMINEE ACHIEVEMENTS

Describe (300 words or less) what this individual or company has done in their community or workplace to:

- Advocate and promote the values of racial and gender equity
- Lead and support programs that advance equity
- Create opportunities for BIPOC women to fully participate and lead

2022 BPC EQUITY AWARDS

NOMINATION FORM (CONTINUED)

In 100 words or less, explain how this individual's or company's work has increased equity for women and/or BIPOC communities.

Is there anything else we should know about this nominee?

NOMINATOR DETAILS

Your Name:

Your Contact Info:

YWCAWORKS.ORG/BPC